Can you recommend someone for Kingdom Level Awards ?

How many times have you attended one of their Majesties glorious courts, buzzab'ed many a well-deserved award, only to feel dissapointed at the end when someone you felt is deserving of an award, someone who works very hard and long for the Dream, was overlooked. Many people around here blaim it on the fact that we have so much Southern Royalty. But in truth, it is because none of the Royalty can know everyone that deserves awards. Especially those who work hard for their Baronies and are not able to travel a lot. They must instead rely on recomendations from the populace, the Peer groups and their advisors. We are their eyes and ears. If you feel someone deserves a Kingdom level award, then you must make it your duty to inform Their Majesties of that person. Your Baron and Baroness are not the ones to talk to. You must do it directly. To make it easier, there is a recomendation form included with this issue. If your voice isn't heard then someone will continue to go unnoticed.

Crash Space

ThLady Wyndylyn is creating a Directory of Crash Space for the Baronial Metro area. This is not to be published. It will be made available to autocrats so that they may call the listed people and make arrangements for the specific event.

If you are willing to open your home to weary travelers, please get in touch with Wyndylyn at 680-1583 or at any event.

from the Chronicler

Greetings to all and you return from War in good health.

The amount of people missing deadlines on article and event submissions is growing again. This makes things difficult for me as I must rush to get the issues to the populace on time. I have been flexible on deadlines but I'm afraid that for me to be able to do the service I am trusted with, I need to enforce deadlines strictly in the future. These dealines are the 15th of each month for hardcopy articles and the 18th for e-mail submissions.

And if you would like to know more about what your Baronial Officers are doing for you, nudge them to write reports. You have the right know whats going on in your Barony.

I need more entries for the Year in review issue. Photos, reviews, comments and anything else is welcome.

In your Service, Lord Frederick of the Black Swans

from the Aspen Pursuivant

Greetings,

I will be stepping down from my office in May, and my deputy, Lady Kseniya, will be stepping up. In the next few months, she will begin to take over some of the duties of the office. Please make her welcome in this office.

Also, from suggestions from Lady Regan, we will try to put together a handout describing the information needed for name/device submission (i.e. cost, # of which type of forms, etc).

In Service, Richenda

from the Warlord,

I hope this missive finds you safe and warm from the Winter. I apologize for the delay in publishing my report for Toys for Tots. My mundane life has interfered greatly of late. The event was a spectacular success thanks to your generosity. A great time was had by everyone, and we even got some excellent media coverage (jousting??). My many thanks to all of you who assisted me in this endeavor. You are too many to name here, for it would take up too much space to thank you appropriately for how you helped. Know well though, that each of you has my gratitude and appreciation for your efforts. I regret that my list of tournament winners has vanished. I would ask that the Champions of this event come forward and remind me so proper recognition of your achievements can be known.

Onto WAR!!!! All Caerthen fighters, please advise me if you are planning to go to Estrella if you have not already done so. I would like to have an accurate head count for our Northern General, so he may pass this information on to Their Majesties. Our War Practice after 12th night was a great success, and if it was any indication of our fortunes in battle, we will indeed prove victorious at Estrella. So sharpen your blades and make ready your armor, for soon we shall shine on the field of Honor.

A final note regarding all donations for the struggling Russian shire. Thank you. Many of us find it difficult to believe in a place where duct tape isn't a few dollars and a block away. All of your gracious donations will indeed make it easier for them to realize the Dream that we cherish.

Yours In Service, Talan Mawr

University of Caerthe

So you attended the 30th Year Celebration, and maybe you went to the 25th, but were you at the very first Knowne World Celebration, the 20th anniversary of the founding of the SCA? No? Then come see what it was like, as Mistress Bernice of Brittany recorded it with her camcorder in 1986. We will hear songs sung by Duke Siegfried, who fought in the first tourney, and tales told by the first seneschal, Mistress Diana Listmaker (Diana Paxon, the writer, in case you didn't know).

We will meet at 7:30 P.M., February 25, the fourth Wednesday of the month, at Salamander Manor, the home of Mistress Bernice of Brittany - 3495 Newland Street, WheatRidge.

All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Mistress Bernice, 233-9558, or Master Robin Vinehall, 444-5004.

Cooks Guild

The Caerthen Cook's Guild will meet February 15 (Sunday) at 2:00 p.m. at Mistress Kate's home, 910 Milwaukee. Contact Kate 322-1907 with any questions.

Gwen, 777-6759, with questions.

It's time to update the data-base for the Baronial Directory. If you have moved or changed any of your information in the current directory; or are new in the Barony please contact Lady Cecelia. Information will be accepted via e-mail or hard copy (typed or printed) only. I will try to have a print-out of the current data on the file for checking at any event I attend. Additions or changes may be sent to: E-mail to mconley@castle.cudenver.edu or regular mail to:

Dance Practice

Dance practice is held on the second and third Wednesdays of each month at the Virginia Village library, Florida and Dahlia (same site as Populace meeting) from 7pm to 9:30pm. Beginning dancers are welcome -- no experience is necessary! We will be teaching new dances as well as reviewing old ones, so now is a great time to come learn some period dances.

To all aurocrats: I will be glad to teach and lead dancing at any event. Those of us who have been practicing for many months now would like a chance to share what we've learned with the rest of the Barony. I am willing to run a practice session during the afternoon as well as to lead dancing after the feast. Just let me know a little in advance, so that I can be prepared. My phone number is listed in the back of the Fortress under Dance Practice.

Yours in service to the Barony, Lady Arwen Southernwood.

from the Scottish Gaming Captain

Greetings good gentles. If you have ever seen those crazy Scots throwing trees and other heavy things and thought it would be fun, now is your chance. On the 4th of July weekend I will be hosting an SCA only Scottish games. Those interested in showing the rest of the Kingdom that you to can throw heavies, oh oops, I mean heavy things, I will be holding practices on weekends when weather permits. Primarily in Caerthe but I also plan to make at least one trip up to Unser Hafen and down to Dragonsspine. Those interested in participating in the games on the 4th will have to be authorized by me prior to the event. To be authorized you must attend at least one practice and be checked out for safety. This is why I will be travelling.

Also, for those gentles who are interested in offering other Scottish or Irish activities at the event and or practices, please let me know. The site for the event on the 4th will be the Meadows camp ground in Buffalo Creek. The same site as Caerthe's 25th year event. It is a wet site!!. Please contact Lord Ivan at 303-940-7746 or MacIvan@aol.com.

Scribes Guild

Just a reminder to all interested scribes, illuminators, scribblers and doodlers: The Scribes Guild of Caerthe meets on the second and third Mondays of each month, at the home of THL Wyndylyn (call her at 680-1583 for directions).

For those of you who are new to the Barony or to the SCA, the Scribes Guild in Caerthe is a very informal group. We don't have a traditional guild structure, nor are there any official membership requirements. If you are interested in any aspect of the scribal arts (drawing, painting, calligraphy, research, etc.), you are ALWAYS welcome to join us. And of course, scribes from the Canton of Hawk's Hollow and Schola Metallorum are invited to come share techniques with us.

Likewise, you do NOT have to be a Guild "member" or to attend meetings to receive scroll assignments. If you wish to be given scroll assignments, please contact me!

Autocrats: The Scribes are available to do scrolls for your event. Whether you need award scrolls for an A&S, or a thank-you scroll for that gentle who gave you special assistance, we can help you out. Our only requirement is that you give us a reasonable lead time to complete your request -- preferably a minimum of two weeks.

Populace: If you have received an award (Kingdom or Baronial) but not a scroll, please let me know as soon as possible, and I will check into the status of your scroll.

Yours in Service to the Dream,
Lady Arwen Southernwood (303)756-7040 mcclunes@aol.com

Goodbye from Lord Braden

Unto the Populace of Caerthe I send greetings. As the last of the founding members of Schola Metallorum to graduate from the college, I feel that it should be one of us that thanks the Barony for their investment in Schola. The college is a young, strong group. This group isn't a large circle of peers, or well awarded gentles, this group is full of potential strength and energy that the Barony should draw from and utilize. These first few years have been a wonderful example. Crown Tourney Feast a couple of years ago and Kingdom A&S this fall both turned out favorable results, both in the atmosphere of the halls, and the benefit to the Barony. Please don't forget your young students at the college. Not all of them will jump into your arms as I have. Visit them and be involved. Get to know hard workers like Tatiana, Temair, Louis. They do not do high profile work that is noticed all over the Barony, but for the students at Schola Metallorum, they are the foundation of the college. Which leaves me with this final note: Thank you all. Thank you to those who picked me up from the start, and allowed me to help, to play, to learn, to run small events and assist in larger endeavors. To entertain and to laugh, to tell fowl humor and to get away with it. To sit and talk with me, and kick back and enjoy the moment with friends, family really. Most of all, I wish to thank all of you for letting me have fun. In my travels around I have seen people who seem to forget that this is all supposed to be a lot of fun, and you folks have not forgotten that. Two years ago I was a newbie, someone who had no idea about what went on in the SCA. The past two years have opened my eyes to some amazing efforts and accomplishments. A year and a half ago, I sat around a campfire with a good gentle. His Lordship summarized the SCA when he said: "The SCA is truly living. You don't just exist, you live as much as you can. Right here, right now." My home may be abroad, but Caerthe will always have my heart. Thanks.

Karl Braden von Sobernheim

Ask Artemise
An Advice Column for the Socially Perplexed of the SCA

Dear Artemise, I was at a large event recently where a Royal Court was being held. I really wanted to hear what was going on, but the people near me were all talking, so I couldn't. The hall was crowded, so it would have been hard for me to move closer to the thrones so I could hear better. What should I have done?

Frustrated

Dear Frustrated, I can sympathize with your plight completely, having been in just such a situation more times than I care to remember. It can happen at any event, though it is more likely to occur at large events due to things like long courts, big halls with poor acoustics, and an abundance of old friends eager to catch up with a year's worth of gossip. That is no excuse for rudeness. A court is a solemn event where Their Majesties or Their representatives conduct business. As such, it should be worthy of the attention of all gentles present, or at least a quiet atmosphere where the words of Their Majesties can be heard. So your noisy neighbors were not only being rude to you, they were being most discourteous to Their Majesties! It is always proper to POLITELY ask the people involved in the conversation to be quiet. Or suggest an alternate location: "My lords and ladies, there are those here who wish to attend court. Perhaps you could move your conversation to another room?" I can understand, however, that there might be times when you feel you cannot do this. If you are fairly new to the Society, and the people creating the disturbance are Duke Sir Ringalot and Mistress Intimidating, you might be a bit hesitant to proceed. In this case, I suggest that you enlist help. Go to a peer, one you feel comfortable talking to, and explain the problem to them. If there aren't any peers available, go to the highest ranking person you know, or to any officer of your group. Members of the Royal or Baronial Guard can also use their offices to convey authority: "My lords and ladies, Their Majesties (or Excellencies) request that you be quiet so that others can hear." Unfortunately, if these not-so-subtle hints do not deter the chatterers, there's not much more you can do. (No, throwing food is NOT an option!) Try to arrive earlier and get a better seat next time, and years from now, when YOU are Mistress Intimidating, remember that it is up to you to set a better example.

Yours in service to the Society, Artemise d'Arbrotane

(You may send your etiquette questions to Artemise via The Fortress, or by e-mail at Darbrotane@aol.com.)

The Order of the Argent Hart (CAH) was proclaimed at the second Coronation by Gunwaldt and AElflaed and is presented to those persons who have demonstrated excellence in the arts and sciences, giving freely of their talents to enrich the Outlands. The medallion for this order is any rendition of a white stag. The first to receive this order was Hieronymus the Sarabite.

The Order of the Stag's Blood (DSB) was proclaimed at the second Coronation by Gunwaldt and AElflaed and is presented to those persons who have demonstrated excellence in the fighting arts, both in teaching and in the use of traditional SCA-style weaponry. The symbol of the order is any rendition of a white stag and a sword or ax or both. The first companion of this order was Artan Skulcrusher.

The Order of the White Scarf (DWS) was established at "the Phune" in A.S. XXII by TRM Artan and Tara and is given to those who have demonstrated excellence in the art of fence, giving freely of their expertise in the use and artistry of this weapon style and the courtly graces which accompany its mastery. Members of the order are styled "Don" or "Dona". The first companion of this order was Alexandre d'Avigne.

The Order of the Venerable Guard (CVG) was established at Midwinter, A.S. XXII, by TRM Hagen and Beatrix and its members are those who have served the martial interests of the Society for a period of not less than fifteen years. The first companion of this order was Asad Ud-Din.

The Order of the Golden Pheon (COP) was proclaimed in January, A.S. XXII, by TRM Hagen and Beatrix and is presented to those archers who have demonstrated their abilities in service to the Kingdom. The first companion of this order was Eric Morrison. The insignia of the order is a rendering of a gold pheon environed of a stag's attire.

The Order of the Walker of the Way (CWW) was retained from ancient times. The Walker was established long before the Outlands became a Principality and later became an official order. It is given to that person whose behavior the King and Queen feel shows the highest ideals and values of the Current Middle Ages and is given only once per reign. The first companion of the Order was Theodric ap Breken Beaken. The first companion named as we became a Kingdom was Erc of Ringholden. The insignia for this order is traditionally depicted as a palmer walking on a path.

The Order of the Promise of the Outlands (CPO) was retained from our history. The Promise was originally established during the reign of Prince Eldr and Princess Angelica and is given to those young persons whom the Crown feels have demonstrated an understanding of life in these Current Middle Ages. The first companion of the order was Cailin MacDuff. The first recipient of the Order since we became a Kingdom is Emrys Holebrook.

Awards of Arms (AA), Grants of Arms (GA) and Patents of Arms may be bestowed with some of those other awards or separately for general service and/or recognition of the recipient. These three awards progress in rank with Awards of Arms being the lower in rank, allowing the recipient to place Lord or Lady before their name. A Grant of Arms is greater in rank and allows the use of Honorable Lord or Lady and also grants the privilege of being addressed "your Lordship" or "your Ladyship". The peerages rank above these and usually carry with them a Patent of Arms.
